

1. Introduction/Personal Greeting

EXPRESSIONS

- "Dear [Client Name],"
- "I am [Your Name], a [Your Profession] with [X years] of experience."
- "Thank you for considering my proposal."

About yourself

- I have ... years of experience (in) ...
- I have been ... for the last ... year.
- Over the course of my career, I've ...
- What I excel at is ... (in order) to ...
- For the past ... years, I've been passionate about ...
- ... has been my life for over ... years.
- I've devoted the last ... years of my life to ...

2. Acknowledgement of the Client's Needs

EXPRESSIONS

- "I understand you need [service]."
- "You are looking for a solution to [problem]."
- "Based on your project description, I can help with [specific need]."

3. Proposed Solution

EXPRESSIONS

- "My approach will be to [solution]."
- "I plan to [task or strategy]."
- "Here's how I will solve [client's problem]."

What I propose is ...

Think about a proposal that would strengthen your department or your company in some way. Following are some areas you might consider:

productivity	communication	cost savings	sales
work processes	working environment	efficiency	customer satisfaction

4. Timeline

EXPRESSIONS

- "The project will take [X weeks/days]."
- "I will complete the first milestone by [date]."
- "Here's the timeline for the work: [list of stages]."

5. Budget/Cost

EXPRESSIONS

- "The total cost will be [price]."
- "My rate is [hourly/project rate]."
- "A detailed breakdown of costs is as follows: [list of services]."

6. Previous Work/Portfolio

EXPRESSIONS

- "Please find my portfolio attached."
- "Here are some examples of my previous work: [link or attachment]."
- "I have worked on similar projects, including [project example]."

7. Call to Action

EXPRESSIONS

- "Let's discuss further. Please feel free to reach out."
- "I look forward to your feedback."
- "Please let me know if you have any questions or would like to move forward."

EXTRA

Useful Expressions

Talking about signing contracts

Before I can commit to the deal, I need to see all the terms in black and white.

We finally inked a deal with the distributor that will help us in Asian markets.

If everything looks good, just go ahead and sign on the dotted line.

All we need is your John Hancock right here, and we'll start working on your order.

How should I phrase this?

THE SITUATION NOW Right now, ... At present / At the moment, ... Currently / Presently, ... Considering that ... Bearing in mind ...	THE PROPOSAL An alternative would be ... One way of doing this ... One / The solution to this ...	CAUSE AND EFFECT As a result, ... Because of ... Owing to ... So, ... By (doing this) ...
FOR EXAMPLE Such as ... For instance, ... A case in point ... One example of this ... In this way, ...	AND Also, ... In addition, ... Furthermore, ... Moreover, ... Not only ..., but also ...	BUT However, ... Although ... Despite / In spite of ... On the other hand, ...

CONSOLIDATE & APPLY

[illegible]